VOLUME XIV.—NUMBER 22.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1908.

$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

MONDAY WAS A BUSY DAY In the Rumford Municipal Court.

Three Cases Heard Before Judge Stearns.

In the Municipal court at Rumford on Monday three cases were brought before Judge Stearns and a large part of the day was given to hearing the evidence which was brought in. The first man brought before the court was an Italian named Agostino Guiseppe, charged with carrying concealed weapons. The story of the affair, which led up to the arrest of Guiseppe is as follows:

Saturday evening shortly after six o'clock as five men employed in the mill of the International Paper Co. were starting for their homes at Smithville they heard several shots fired one after another in the vicinity of the round house.

The men fearing danger sought refuge in the round house and telephoned to the police station for a policeman to come and pilot them home. Their request was granted and upon their return the officers met Guiseppe and having found cartridge shells on the ground asked him if he had a revolver on his person. He replied that he had none but upon being searched a revolver was found, the chambers of which were the same size as the empty shells.

The court placed Guiseppe under $500 bonds to keep the peace. The second case which was brought to the attention of the court was one of alleged assault by Grant Rogers and Frangello Fergale on Carmine Diderio. By the evidence brought out it was found that the last named man was going home from his work on Saturday evening and upon arriving at a place opposite the electric light station was met by the two men who assaulted him. Rogers and Fergale testified that they asked him why he did not keep out of the mill and wait until all of the men went back and that he called them insulting names whereupon they knocked him down. R. L. Melcher came along directly with the team and saw the affair. Mr. Melcher was one of the chief witnesses.

The two men were not arrested until Sunday afternoon when they were discovered by one of the officers. Col. Bisbee appeared for the prosecution and Matthew McCarthy for the defense. The court imposed a fine of ten dollars and costs on the two men who were adjudged guilty.

The case of John Barrett was next brought up. It was claimed by special officer Lyon and Detective Clark that they saw Barrett behind the fence opposite the International mill on Saturday evening and when discovered he was in the act of throwing some missiles toward the mill. Barlett in the evening two rocks were fired at the mill although no damage was done. The witnesses for Barrett said that he had remained at his home all of the evening and knew nothing of the affair.

The guilty party managed to get away from the officers under cover of the darkness but he was seen by one of them on the street, Monday and taken into custody. Considerable time was taken up with this case on account of bringing in new witnesses and finding an interpreter. When Mrs. Barrett arrived on the scene she caused considerable laughter as she was not in the best of spirits and made a deal of talk in Polish which amused the listeners.

The Judge found the man guilty and he was obliged to pay a fine of $3 and costs.

CORRECTION.

An item was sent into the Citizen of last week, announcing that Mr. F. L. Edwards of Bethel had given the new fence which has been recently set about the new soldiers' monument in Bethel, and we have since been informed that the item was an error, that the fence was given by Mr. F. L. Edwards' brother, Mr. H. A. Edwards of Los Angeles, California.

Edwyl H. Smith, Bethel.
Albert W. Thomas, Norway.
Superintendents.
James E. Warren, Buckfield.
Harry W. Beare, Hebron.

There was at the opening the usual grist on the docket, some five hundred in number. At the first sitting the list dropped to 61 and at the second glance it landed at 37. These were promptly assigned by Justice Bird, following which assignments the various attorneys got busy adjusting the assignments to their conditions, which resulted in a further cutting down of the list and several changes in assignment.

The routine business of the session was concluded early Tuesday afternoon and real work began. There is little on the docket to require any extended consideration and the chances are that the session will be of average length.

Among the more important cases is that of Jailer Farrar vs. White and Fines, the prisoners who made a serious assault upon Farrar while attempting to break jail on May 20th.

Another important case is a damage suit brought by the same W. L. Farrar against Dr. Alfred King of Portland for malpractice in performing an operation on the plaintiff for gall stones about a year ago. The damage named in the writ is $10,000.

WILLIAM RAYE ACCEPTS NEW POSITION.
William Raye former resident manager of the Oxford Paper Co. of Rumford, left Friday of last week for Tarrytown, N. Y., where he has accepted the position of assistant manager of the Keith Paper Co. mill where Mr. James Bush formerly of this place is manager.

Mr. Raye's family will reside at Greenfield, where in about three miles from the mill.

EIGHTEENTH EXHIBITION OF THE Bethel Fair and Cattle Show.

Hall Exhibits, Races and Pre- mium List.

As a continuation of last week's report of the various exhibits at the Bethel Fair may be added the following:

HALL EXHIBIT.
H. S. Hastings of Newry Corner had a collection of vegetables consisting of three different kinds of squashes, three kinds of pumpkins, watermelons, cabbages, cauliflower, and the following varieties of potatoes: Snow, Early Ohio, Late Potewaska, Early Bird, California Russet, Belle of Depont, Early Norcross, Late Rose and Cow Horn. He also had musk melons, carrots, turnips, beans, beets, cucumbers, 2 varieties of tomatoes, sweet corn and some fine traces of yellow corn, a thing too seldom seen as there are very few farmers comparatively who raise this product now. Mr. Hastings also had a nice collection of apples, consisting of Wealthy, Kings, Snow Apples and others. In his collection of canned goods were noticed corn canned on the cob, tomatoes with lemons, cucumber pickles, ketchup and jellies. One noticeable feature of Mr. Hastings' collection was vegetable oranges which are raised to quite an extent in some parts of the country for preserving purposes.

The collection of J. H. Hutchins contained Marblehead and Faxon squashes, cittern, White Belgian and Oxheart cabbages.

SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT Of the Universalist Good Cheer Society at South Paris.

The first supper and entertainment of the Universalist Good Cheer Society was held at Good Cheer Hall Tuesday evening of last week. There was a good attendance, all the tables being filled at the supper, which was first class in every particular. The entertainment which followed was of music and readings, and was exceptionally good every one of those taking part being obliged to respond to an encore. The program was as follows:

Piano Duet—Mrs. W. P. Morton and Mrs. Heman Wilson.
Solo—Mr. Frank Rike.
Reading—Miss Rosa Murphy.
Duet—Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Pike.
Solo—Mr. Ralph Penfold.
Reading—Katherine Morton.
Solo—L. L. Sealston.
Song and Dance—Master Ralph Andrews and Miss Marie Newton.
Soft music rendered on the violin by Sarah Swett added much to Miss Morton's first reading. The entertainment for the November supper is already under way and will take the form of a Kid's Musical Show, the children being in charge of Mrs. I. E. Andrews.

RUMFORD MILITIAMEN AT- TEND STATE SHOOT.

This week the Small Arms competition, commonly called the annual shoot of the First and Second Regiments, State Militia is taking place. The 1st regiment will be at Brunswick and the 2nd at Augusta on Thursday, when the different companies will compete for the prizes. On Friday the best teams of each regiment will meet for the championship shoot.

Each company is authorized to send 6 men and an alternate. The members of Company B, who are attending are Sergeant Nelson Coolidge, Corporal H. H. Chubbourn, Cor. H. C. Noller, Cor. Herman W. Hansen, Wm. H. Burgess, Wallace O. Foster and Joseph Reggie. The company does not expect to make much of a showing as they have had but little chance to practice.

The new rifle range in the vicinity of the State House will be completed this week and is called the State Rifle Range.

TRIP TO WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mr. E. C. Bowler, editor of the Citizen is offering an opportunity for several people to earn a trip to Washington, D. C. It will be taken with a party next winter while Congress is in session and will be a most ideal trip.

The entire expenses of those who obtain the chance will be paid. There will be an opportunity for about 10 people to earn this trip and any interested should write Mr. Bowler at Bethel, Maine, at once for full particulars.

MAINE BAPTISTS VOTE UNANIMOUSLY To Unite with the Free Baptists.

Closing Day of the Convention.

At the Thursday afternoon session of the Maine Baptists in the convention at Rumford last week it was voted unanimously to unite with the Free Baptist denomination. It was expected that this proposition would cause a lengthy discussion but such was not the case. The motion for a union was made by Dr. I. B. Moore and was soon carried with a rising vote.

The convention closed Thursday evening after a most successful session. The meetings were largely attended by many of the people in town and the number of delegates amounted to nearly 300. The speakers were very interesting and a great deal of good was derived by the listeners.

The closing address on Thursday evening delivered by A. W. Anthony, D. D. of Bates college was a masterful one, the subject being "The personal equation."

It is expected that the next convention will be held in Brewer, where a new church is in the course of construction.

FIELD DAY OF THE MEXICO HIGH SCHOOL.

Field Day of the Mexico High School. Quite a large number of people gathered on the Mexico ball grounds Saturday afternoon to witness the sports and ball game of the Mexico High School. The games were called at two o'clock, and the running races and bicycle race of one half mile was run over the course from Crommett's store at Ridgeway to the fountain at Mexico Corner. The rest of the sports were on the field. The following were the participants and winners:

100 yd. dash—Percy Wagner, John Kidder. Won by John Kidder.
One-half mile bicycle race—Earle Davis, Virgil Whitman, Louis Houston. Won by Earle Davis.
One-half mile run—John Kidder, Lester Blood, Fred Fish. Won by John Kidder.
Pole vault—Louie Houston, Percy Wagner, Lester Blood. Won by Lester Blood, 7 ft. 8 in.
Running high jump—Percy Wagner, Lester Blood, Fred Fish. Winner, Lester Blood, 4 ft.
Running broad jump—Fred Fish, John Kidder. Winner, John Kidder, 15 ft. 4 in.
Standing broad jump—Percy Wagner, Lester Blood. Won by Percy Wagner, 8 ft. 11 in.
After these trials of skill, a ball game was called between the Mexico High team and a scrub team.

SEIZURE MADE BY DEPUTY SHERIFF.

Deputy Sheriff Elliott made a seizure at the Jack O'Leary place at 87 Canal street the first of the week.

The trunk containing the stuff was found in the room of a lodger, and was not the property of O'Leary. It is understood that the trunk contained twenty-three pint bottles of whiskey and two six gallon casks containing about four gallons of whiskey.

RECEPTION TO REV. F. C. LEE

The New Rector at St. Barnabas, at Parish Hall.

A charming affair was the reception given on Wednesday evening at the Parish Hall of St. Barnabas church, in honor of the newly appointed rector, Rev. Frederick Crosby Lee and Mrs. Lee.

The affair was in charge of ladies from the St. Margaret's Guild of this church. The decorations were beautifully appropriate, being huge masses of bright autumn leaves.

The reception was held from eight till ten, Mr. and Mrs. Lee being assisted in receiving by members of the parish. The program which was particularly pleasing was composed of music and readings, among those assisting being Mrs. Wynnefred Staples Smith, and Mr. James Tracy as soloists and Mr. Harold Stanwood as reader. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served by competent young people.

A cordial invitation had been extended to the townspeople and the gathering was a large and happy one.

ASSAULT CASE. Nine Year Old Girl Assaulted at South Paris.

It is doubtful if any crime ever committed in this vicinity has so enraged the people as that of last Friday, when Ethel Meggs, a girl of nine years was criminally assaulted by an unknown man. Little Miss Meggs has recently come here from Canada to make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Leonard, who lives on what is known as the Hooper's ledge road, just a short distance from the main road, leading from South Paris to Paris Hill. Mrs. Leonard and her daughter are employed in the corn factory Mr. Leonard was in South Paris at the time the deed was committed, thus leaving the young girl at the house alone. A man carrying a gun and having the general appearance of a hunter, approached the house and asked for a drink of water, satisfying himself that the girl was alone and at his mercy, he committed his awful deed and departed. Mr. Leonard soon returned home and noticed that the girl acted strangely, but she refrained from telling him the circumstances. When he learned his horse to go after his wife and daughter, the girl asked to go with him, saying that she was afraid to stay at home alone. Mr. Leonard took her with him and after meeting his wife, and in answer to her questions the girl told them what had occurred. She was taken immediately to a physician and given the attention she was badly in need of, and a satisfactory recovery is now expected. The girl is certain that she would know the man if she should see him again and several other people saw a man that answered the description she gave of him. She also states that he was under the influence of liquor. The officers are working hard on the case and every effort will be made to bring the guilty party to justice.

RESOLUTIONS

On The Death of E. H. Goddard.

Bethel Lodge, F. & A. M., Oct. 8, 1908. As after a long life extended many years beyond the allotted time to the children of men, our brother, E. H. Goddard has been called by the giver of all life to that land where our fathers have gone before us.

Resolved that we miss his living presence for so many years among us, we still may remember and emulate his virtues and profit by imitating his good dispositions.

Resolved that while we miss his living presence for so many years among us, we still may remember and emulate his virtues and profit by imitating his good dispositions.

Resolved that as an expression of regard for our departed brother and as a token of our fraternal sympathy with those that mourn his loss, these resolutions be published in the Oxford County Citizen, and placed on our records.

MORRORS OF THE POLICE COURT.

"What is your name?" asked the justice.

"Leggett Fergrubb, your honor," answered the prisoner, a red-nosed specimen of the genus hobo.

"You are charged with vagrancy, having no visible means of support, and being a common nuisance in the neighborhood. What have you to say for yourself?"

"I hain't got no visible means of support, your honor, but that ain't my fault. I'm out of work."

"Have you tried to get work?"

"I couldn't begin to, tell you, your honor, how hard I've tried."

"I suppose not. How long is it since you have had any occupation?"

"'Bout a year. Or it might be two years."

"What was your last job?"

"I had a position in a barber shop. 'A position? What kind?'"

"Juxtaposition, your honor; I was next."

"Six months in the workhouse!" roared the police justice. "Call the next case!" —Chicago Tribune.

ANOTHER NATURAL MISTAKE.

Mrs. Jenkins—Norah, did you see that bag of confetti I bought for Freddie yesterday?

The Cook—Of did; but, shure, O! didn't know it was only for Freddie. There's half av it left, though.

Mrs. Jenkins (excitedly)—Half of it? What became of the rest?

The Cook—O! cooked it, av course; an' so all had it fer yer breakfast this mornin'. —Judge.

NATURALLY.

Aunt Frederica—Jeannie! Your costume is shocking. I would be ashamed to be seen in it!

Jeannie—Yes, aunt, you would have reason to be.

HAVE NO CHANCE FOR GOSSIP.

One Argument in Defense of Reserve of City Life.

There is much to be said of the custom prevailing in large cities, the indifference with which families regard each other. They may live with only a thin wall as a separation, and never know their neighbors by sight. It is heartless, in a way, to have no knowledge of misfortune which one might relieve, but it is rather agreeable to be able to live as one pleases with the certainty that prying eyes are not taking stock of economics and habits. It is almost impossible to begin a system of retrenchment in a town or neighborhood where there are keen eyes to inspect every movement and sharp tongues to disclose each discovery. So we have families always living beyond their means because they have not the moral courage to advertise their true financial condition. It is not wise to take the public into one's confidence. When it becomes necessary to give up a home it lessens the chances of recovering from pecuniary losses to allow the neighborhood to discuss the matter with certain knowledge. A graceful retreat can generally be managed save in gossiping places, and even there silence is much better than confession.

HE WAS FACING A "DRY" DAY.

Thirty Man, True to Promise, Really in Desperate Straits.

Charles M. Schwab, at the reception that he gave to the American Boiler Makers during their convention in Detroit, said that among his many millionaire friends all were honest, and that he did not know of a single American millionaire who had made his money dishonestly.

"But the millionaire looms big," said Mr. Schwab, "and everybody wants to find fault with him. We are as anxious to find flaws in our millionaires as old Bill Lush of Loreto was to find special occasions."

"Yes, sir," said Bill one night, "I faithfully promised my wife 27 years ago never to take more than three drinks except on special occasions. Friday was my birthday, Saturday was Decoration day, Sunday my brother-in-law concluded a visit to me, Monday we had fine weather after a long wet spell, to-morrow my oldest girl's new dressmaker dress comes home; only today, dear if I can't think of anything special!"

THE HOME CIRCLE.

Pleasant Reveries—A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers
as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Editor's Note.—It is our desire to make this department one of the most interesting and valuable features of the whole paper. To this end we ask the assistance of our readers. Choice verse and gems of thought will be gladly received. Here are our thanks for anything that our friends have sent or may send.

When Tip Drives Home the Cows.
The farmhouse stands upon the hill,
Low, white and fair to view;
While across the valley mountains fill
The skyline's fading blue.
The barnyard thrush its evening hymn
Chants as a man her vows,
In woodland aisles, so vast and dim—
When Tip drives home the cows.

There's naught to tell of care or strife,
All peaceful lies the vale,
As from the forest path now rife
With many a bedtime tale
From brooding bird in leafy nest,
From moss where insects drizzle,
There comes the hoof-beats' hurrying
As Tip drives home the cows.

With eye alert the faithful dog
Watches each lagging kine;
Over billy slope and spongy bog
He keeps them straight in line;
On through the haze with urging bark
Till the stabled house
Each tired neck, or light, or dark
Of Tip's home-coming cows.

With smile of toil and grateful mood
They stand and patient wait
To yield, without the least ado,
Because the hour is late,
The center garnered from the fields
Wherein they daily browse.
There is no sight such pleasure yields
As Tip's safe-herded cows.

God placed somewhere in the heart
Of each of us a tender memory,
Which enables us to touch with a gentle hand
Or soothing word the heart of the afflicted.
What a comfort to know that
For every heartache there is somewhere
In the universe a heaven inspired soul
To comfort those downcast. Let us
Make our words as dew from heaven,
Touching with gentle hand the withered
Flowers, giving new vigor to the hardy.

The great drawback to domestic fel-lity often lies in the fact that we get too familiar with one another. There should be a certain reserve in the most intimate relationship. Members of the same family have no right to burst into one another's rooms without knocking. Wives have no more right to search their husbands' pockets than they have to do the same little service for a distant acquaintance. You have no more right to rob baby's bank than to force the vault of the first National.

Home Happiness.
Probably nineteen twentieths of the happiness you will ever have, you will get at home. The independence that comes to a man when his work is over and to feel that he has run out of the storm into the quiet harbor of home, where he can rest in peace with his family, is something real. It does not make much difference whether you own your home or have one little room in that house, you can make that little room a home to you. You can people it with such words, you can turn to it with such sweet fancies, that it will be fairly luminous with their presence, and will be to you the very perfection of a home. Against this home come of you should ever transgress.

Make your home pleasant to your children and there will be no armies of unemployed marching through the country. In America every school, in distribution, honest young man can find employment. He may have to accept of an humble calling, but will rapidly climb the ladder. "As the twig is bent the tree is inclined" and it is in the home without pleasure or happiness that sends the children upon the streets in search of a more congenial atmosphere than they find beneath the parental roof. There are none of us so poor that we can trust a few pieces on the humble wall, and their scent and beauty will long be remembered, and many a boy, instead of going to loaf upon the public highway will linger at home among the flowers.
Moral degradation always begins at home. Honesty is never gained or lost outside, or by accident, but it comes from within. The happy home, be it a cottage or a mansion, furnishes no recruits for an army of unemployed.

Don't For Farmers.
Don't try to please your wife.
Don't appreciate one thing she does.
Don't help care for the children.
That is what you get her for.

Don't ever plan your work so as to be able to take her to any entertainment.
Don't be ashamed to read that the majority of insane women are farmer's wives.
Don't get a bucket of water from the cistern when asked. Any one can pump who half tries.
Don't fail to invite company for Sunday dinner without letting her know so she can have a day of rest.
Don't fail to ask your wife if she wants you to do all the house work if she asks you to put some wood in the stove.
Don't wonder that your food has a peculiar flavor, for it is seasoned with blasted hopes, and sighs of disappointment.
Don't neglect asking what she has done with all the eggs and butter money,
for it will more than supply the table, help pay the hired man, and get the children books and clothes.

Do you like the neighbor who is perpetually borrowing and never returning? Now tell the truth, do you? Of course not! Nobody does.

Mother.
Of all the words cherished in the recollection of man—of all the names held sacred in his memory, that of mother falls upon his heart with the most sublime influence. How sweet the recollection in after years of a mother's tender training, and who is there that finds no relief in recurring to the scenes of his infancy and youth gilded with the recollections of a mother's tenderness. And how many have nobly earned that that to the solitary sufferer, then exerted, they must ascribe their future success, their avoidance of evil, when no eyes were upon them, but which rested on the heart, the warnings, the prayers and tears of a mother.

Others may love as fondly, but never again while time is ours, shall any one's love be to us as fond, as tender, as devoted, as that of our dear old trembling mother. Through helpless infancy her throbbing heart was our safe protection and support, and through the ills and maladies of childhood, her gentle hand ministered and soothed as none other could. We feel animated to struggle more manfully in the great battle of life, when we remember our mother's holy counsel to us in childhood's early dawn and in the slippery paths of youth. Ah! those words of tenderness—those plain words softened by a mother's love—so much unheeded, then disregarded—live now brightened in memory, and constitute our sweetest recollections. Her prayers for us in childhood—her sparkling crystal tears—made an impression on our young mind as durable as time, and even now they bid us walk in the paths of rectitude.

But alas how little do a majority of us appreciate a mother's tenderness, while living! How heedless are we in south of all her anxieties and kindness!
But when she is dead and gone, when the cares and coldness of the world come withering to our hearts; when we experience how hard it is to find true sympathy, how few love us for ourselves, how few will befriend us in our misfortune, then we think of the mother that loved us and to her our hearts turn yearningly.

The two best books to a child are a good mother's face and life.

Every woman has an ideal husband before marriage, and a very real one after it.

If you make children happy now you make them happy twenty years from now by the remembrance of it.

Several from this vicinity attended the fair at Bethel last week. Carl Mason and George Soper went with Stearns' Orchestra of Norway, which furnished music for the dance given in connection with the fair, Wednesday evening.

Harold T. Briggs has finished work as freight agent at the depot and accepted a position as clerk in the store of F. N. Wright, Howard W. Shaw takes Mr. Briggs' place at the depot.

A. E. Forbes was at his camp at Shagg Pond several days last week, making improvements about the grounds.

Rev. J. W. Chesboro attended the Baptist State Convention at Rumford, last week, acting as leader in one of the services.

Mrs. Eulalia Millett was taken sick with appendicitis, Wednesday of last week and Friday it was necessary to carry her to the hospital for an operation.

Newton Stanley of South Portland, has been the guest of his brother, Wirt Stanley, several days and they have spent most of the time partridge hunting.

Fred P. Chandler is taking a vacation from his duties as station agent at the depot.

The receiving tomb at Riverside Cemetery is being enclosed with walls of cement blocks, a new roof will also be put on and when completed the outside appearance will be greatly improved and more in keeping with the appearance of the rest of the yard.

A party of young people from this village and Norway went on a hayrack ride to West Paris, Friday evening and attended the dance at that place.

Carl Mason has been chosen as a delegate from Mt. Mead Lodge to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge in Bangor the last week in October.

Hodgkins & Robbins, popular proprietors of the Bijou, have started their moving picture show in the opera house at Norway. Miss Mary Abbott is acting as pianist for them and Miss Rosa Clark as the lady vocalist.

The house of Dr. D. M. Stewart has been wired for electric lights. Also the houses of Carroll Edwards and Mrs. Morse have been wired quite recently.

For the first time for several seasons a foot ball team has been organized at the high school. The fact that the boys are very light has not discouraged them and they expect to make a good showing in the game with Norway, Saturday.

A number of the young people, mostly high school students, attended the social at Concert Hall, Norway, Friday evening, given under the auspices of the Senior class of the Norway High School.

Carl S. Briggs has been at home from his work in Rumford, for a few days.

Croquet still flourishes on the grounds in back of Billings Block.

The suit brought by W. L. Farrar against Dr. King of Portland, furnished something for the villagers to talk about for a while last week. It will be remembered that Mr. Farrar was seriously ill about a year ago of gall stones and that Dr. King was called and an operation performed. Mr. Farrar failed to make a satisfactory recovery and it finally became necessary for a second operation. This time Dr. Thompson was the physician and the condition in which he found the wound made by the first operation was the grounds on which the suit is brought.

The amount of the suit is $1,000. About the usual number took advantage of the reduced rate and made the trip to Boston, some leaving on all the coal boat trains, Monday.

The rooms of the Paris Trust Company slowly taking on the appearance of an up-to-date bank. The firm and has given great credit to new nearly completed and is a beauty. The directors have announced that they have selected as treasurer, Mr. George C. Fernald of Portland. Mr. Fernald will come here very highly recommended and was the successful one of a large list of candidates who desired the position.

Mrs. Eben Kilborn of Bethel, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Stearns, over Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. K. Baldwin of Brunswick were in town a few days last week. They made a host of friends here during Mr. Baldwin's pastorate of the Congregational church who are all ways pleased to see them.

Miss Ruby Clark has been engaged to sing at the Baptist church at Rumford and will open a class in vocal music. Her many friends here wish her success in her new field of labor. Miss Clark sang for a while in the Universalist church here during the illness of Mrs. Wilson and gave the best of satisfaction to all.

NORWAY.

The street cars were held up Thursday, because of a break in the trolley wire on Paris street. Friday morning another break opposite Pine Grove Cemetery held up traffic for two hours.

Twelve members from the Mechanics Falls Lodge N. E. O. P., visited the local order here last Wednesday evening. The Norway fraternity entertained with a well prepared literary program and one of their excellent supper.

Motion pictures were given in the Opera House Friday and Saturday evenings and the place will hereafter be used for an up-to-date Picture World. The program will be varied, besides road companies can fill in one night stands as before.

The High School boys are taking up basket ball this term. Their games are played out of doors until a suitable place under cover can be found. The first and second teams clashed Saturday afternoon, showing up some fairly good material.

John Gonyea has established his family in the new house on Fair street which he built this summer.

Two more cement houses are being erected on lower Tucker street. When completed these will make four that Craig and P. Lee have put up this season on the same street.

A. A. Laferriere expects to handle western hay this winter, owing to the short crop in this section. Mr. Laferriere is an expert hay merchant, having imported the article from Canada during the past thirty-five years.

Chas. Pike is something of an auto machinist. For two weeks he has been working on the steam runabout left there by Jordan, the insurance agent, and has it in good working condition again.

The Toy Makers appeared in the Opera House Monday evening to a good house. This is a clever musical show and brim full of mirth and melody.

Several of the local entertainers will give vaudeville and a dance in Dunham's Hall, West Paris, next Saturday evening. Stearns' Orchestra will furnish music for the entertainment and hop.

Ed. Burnell has his house on Main street freshly painted. Dexter Andrews' buildings are also being improved with paint. Witham's crew are doing the work.

An excellent harvest dinner was served in Concert Hall Tuesday noon and a supper at 5. The Universalist society received the proceeds.

W. H. Gale of Boston is in town this week, looking after the shoe business at B. F. Spinney & Co's factory.

Fred Moore of Norway and Miss Rose Clark of So. Paris are the vocalists at the new moving picture enterprise in the Opera House. It is needless to say their work is entirely satisfactory.

A large buck was seen swimming across Lake Penesseewassee, Sunday afternoon. The animal entered the water near Norway Lake village, swimming across the widest part, nearly a mile. He entered the woods above Headwater then disappeared.

The new water company surely mean business. They have an excellent spring located above Oscar Bennett's house on Pike Hill, and have a long trench dug ready for the pipe. They want to get across the bog before freezing weather comes.

Frank Murdock and his crew have been overhauling the large boiler at the glass factory. This accounts for the customary whistle to be silent.

WELCHVILLE.

Helen Coy of Norway has been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coy's recently.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. F. Pike were at Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Bennett's last Sunday.

Mary Coy and her aunt, Helen Coy, went to Massachusetts last Friday for a two weeks' visit.

Arthur Davis will go to East Paris where he has a lumber job. Grace Carpenter and Mary Coy were in Lewiston the 11th.

Quite a number of people from here attended the fair at Sparr's Corner, Wednesday, the 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Colton Swift from Fall River, Mass., has been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Bennett's.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swift of Locke Mills have been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Bennett's.

A white spring violet was found a few days ago in this place. Mrs. Elmer Twitchell and two of her children, Melson and Chestnut, were in this village last Saturday.

A THOUGHT OR TWO FOR THE FEW.

So long as money—representing wealth and power—is the goal for which human beings strive just so long will there be disputes, feuds, crimes and petty dishonesty.

Under the present world wide system of government and business, the pursuit of the almighty dollar, under whatever name it may be known, is surely a necessity, hence admitting the premise, it is sure that disputes, feuds, crimes and petty dishonesty will result.

How can these conditions be abolished?

The condition and situation is very much like an army going into bat: the hope of all is that very few soldiers will be killed; yet all know that success will only be attained after terrible sacrifice of life. Leaders every year see business balanced, and new ones started; and we know that disaster will overtake some of those in whose name they are opened.

Some of them will do great wrongs, others will indulge in petty misdeeds; and along the way will occur disputes; and hatreds will be engendered. At the end of the year, the balances will spell total ruin for some and great success for others.

The field will be cleared and the accounts opened new again, and many new names appear.

So year in and out the fight for the almighty dollar goes on.

As we advance in civilization improved methods of caring for the self-ridden and system victims are devised. Settlement with creditors at a certain per cent on the dollar, is for some; discharge in bankruptcy for others; poor debtor's oath for the small fellow; and yet jail for the very little and helpless chap.

Books of many pages have been written under the general title of "Political Economy" explaining all the vicissitudes of business and containing all sorts of receipts for reducing the number of "failures," these have acquired professional degrees because they have become learned in the philosophy of business economies.

Their studies in reality are of no more consequence than is that of the man who writes a learned treatise on the science of war, and then seeks to give the soldiers pointers on how to keep from being wounded or killed; and concludes that the best is being done when improved methods of caring for the wounded and burying the killed, are devised.

The simple fact is, the science of political economy, or any other science, to the contrary, if it is so, there is no remedy for these things as a whole. Barring cases of initiatory individual dishonesty, all these "business" disasters are as inevitable as are casualties in battle, and there will be no improvement so long as the system endures. So long as business and political selfishness controls the men and women who possess the organizing brain power, and it places them in the present system, so long it will be.

When the true spirit of Jesus—the man of Nazareth—the spirit that prompts self sacrifice for the world's good, pervades the organizing class of persons we may look for the abolition of a system that cannot be carried on without results as afore mentioned.

The political economists are beating the air in all their speculations and plans for improving the system of competitive business. It is now at its highest point of perfection—the next step must be outside all the lines marked off by them.

In this speculation, we do not wish to be understood as criticizing the organizing class as a whole or as individuals. They are working out their problems according to the laws of progress. Our observation has led us to knowledge that, to the limits permitted by the system, many of these persons are filled with love and human kindness, and spend millions of dollars in philanthropic and relief work every year. Their compassion is aroused for the unfortunate, as is the sympathy of those who care for the wounded in battle.

They think however, that war is a necessity. Is it?

MANLY A. BRIGHAM.WEST BUCKFIELD.

Mrs. Sydney Bell of Billings, Montana, is visiting at S. E. Briggs'.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elwood of Shawbree are visiting at A. H. Elwood's.

Mrs. G. H. Warren of North Buckfield, spent last week at Harry Buck's. Some from this way attended the corn husking and dance at Charles B. Damon's, Wednesday night.

Levi Turner, who has been working in Paris is at H. B. Buck's.

Miss Agnes Briggs worked for Mrs. O. D. Warren, Saturday.

George Lewis is a little better. Miss Levenna Winslow is improving. John Flagg has built a hen house. Harry Buck is plowing for Herbert Phillips. James Richards has been cutting corn fodder at Buckfield.

To the Citizens Of Mexico.

The Mexico Water System is now completed. The water has been analyzed, and pronounced to be absolutely pure and healthful. The Mexico Water Company is ready to furnish water to anyone desiring to take it, at the same rates, and according to the same regulations, as those of other water companies throughout the State.

As an additional inducement for takers, to connect with the Mexico Water System, the Company has voted to make all connections free of expense to takers from now until the ground freezes, and to give free water until January first to all persons who connect previous to that time. The Company is prepared to make connections at any time. All applications for water connections should be made to B. W. GOODWIN, Ridgelyville, Maine.

Apply early and avoid the rush.

MR. TAFT'S FIRST JUDGE-SHIP.

Mr. Taft's first judicial post was on the Superior Court bench of the State of Ohio, to which he was elevated soon after his marriage in 1885. He had earlier and become betrothed to Miss Helen Herron, daughter of John W. Herron, who was President Hayes's law partner. He and Miss Herron had known each other from childhood. So far as money went, Mr. and Mrs. Taft, when they were wedded, probably had less than most of the young married pairs whom they knew. But they made do. Their first home was in McMillan street. It was their own from the start, and the keen satisfaction they felt in possession of a domain all their own was not marred by the fact that there was a mortgage to clear away. That was no incentive for the husband to work and the thrifty wife to save in the life partnership that began so happily, and which has lost none of its charm and its idealism, its contentment, pleasure and comfort in the decades that have gone.

Mr. Taft had been steadily growing in confidence and in the regard of the community. People began to have a notion that they wanted him to work for them, to place him in the forefront of public affairs, to look after their interests in the things which they had either the time, patience, nor perhaps the ability to handle themselves. The same instinct of self interest which prompts a business man to prize reliable clerks and managers is apt to guide us when we cast about for men to fill our high offices. We like to feel that we can trust them.

When Governor Foraker sent notice to Mr. Herron that he intended to name him as Superior Court Judge to fill a vacancy, the Governor was besought, when Mr. Herron declined the honor, to appoint Mr. Taft. By the rules of politics it was almost inevitable that he should, for Foraker was the embodiment of the machine and Mr. Taft was most of the machine and Mr. Taft was most of the machine. Mr. Taft became a judge. Foraker went farther, he nominated the nomination of Judge Taft for a full elective term, and used his influence to elect him. But it was not entirely disinterestedness on his part. Judge Taft's name on the ticket and the following which he commanded was an asset for the party, and his winning reflected a measure of credit upon his sponsors.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is an unhappy slave. Herdock Blood Millers build up good health—keep you well.

HAD QUIT WORK
READY TO GIVE UP IN DESPAIR

Restored to Health by Vinol

"I was sick, run-down and finally had to give up work. After trying a number of remedies and several physicians, I was just about ready to give up in despair. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and it has done more good for me than all other means combined. It has built me up and restored my strength until I now feel twenty years younger, and am able to attend to my work again as usual." Job Joavans, 1615 Lind street, Wheeling, W. Va.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains tonic iron and all of the strengthening blood-making and body-building elements of cod liver oil, but so soft.

Vinol is unexcelled as a strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and after sickness—and is the best known remedy for weakness, colds and bronchitis.

We return your money if Vinol fails to give satisfaction.

VINOL is sold in Bethel by W. H. Boeserman, Druggist.

TALKING THROUGH CHEST.

It has recently become generally known that the user of the telephone can make himself understood if he places the transmitter to his chest instead of his mouth. As yet no practical use has been made of this discovery. As the disk of the telephone is a collector of germs to some extent, it would be well to use this method when talking through a public instrument.

MEN OF MAINE.

By O. J. Taylor.

Horns of the steadfast shire, Kin of the spruce and the pine, Where the north horn fountains pour To the thousand-harbored line—

Hear ye the call from the hill, The maize-mantled all, and the plain: "Hear ye of oak, be with us still, Men of Maine, Men of the State of Maine!"

Voice of yon brother, and son, Voices of sister and wife, Keeping the faith the fathers won On the red-steeped roads of strife; And they cry, the West to the East, Out of their sweat and their strain, "For the great still direct, and the least,

Men of Maine, Men of the State of Maine!"

Hark to the rumble afar! Tread of the foresters' feet Trump of the soldierman, and far, Sullen as night drums abey; And a chanty swells up on the air, A foreword of battle and pain, "Mates, all's well—we are there! The Men of Maine, Men of the State of Maine!"

—Portland Daily Press, Sept. 21, 1908.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it is "in fact, the popular dictionary," and that it is "the most authoritative and reliable work of the kind in the English language."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular educational knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition and that in the future it will be the source of constant reference.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman any day may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholly pure and harmless.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition.

Women who are suffering from these distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

IF THE CORNERS OF YOUR MOUTH SAG.

When you see the corners of your child's mouth sag down, you know the remedy. You try to make him laugh, to forget the things that caused his mouth to droop. Why not apply the antidote in your own case?

If the corners of your mouth sag, you know the antidote that will turn them up—a smile, a good, hearty laugh, as an uplifting thought.

If you catch a glimpse of your face in the glass and see that there is a thundercloud to your expression, if it does not seem possible to look pleasant, get up by yourself a few minutes and deliberately "reel" into your mind as many pleasant, happy, joyful, optimistic, encouraging thoughts as possible, and you will be surprised to see how quickly your expression will change.

The trouble is in your face because there is one in your mind. It is a mental affliction—nothing more.

GETTING THE DOCTOR'S ATTENTION.

Any one who has had to wait any considerable length of time to see a doctor, a public man, or any one of importance, can testify to the fact that the waiting is often a very unpleasant experience. It is a waste of time and money, and it is a waste of the doctor's time. It is a waste of the doctor's time, and it is a waste of the doctor's time.

At length he said slowly, "Boy Bill, what do you do with a vacation any more?"

"I don't know," I said.

"Think why, I think it's great," said I, as I looked back the precious document. Really, the situation was delicate. Not only had Miss Hoppe remembered the little elevator boy with a vacation, but she had forwarded him a formal certificate similar to those sent to every man on the staff.

From the bottom of the boy's face, however, I saw that something more was expected of me concerning this certificate.

A BOON FOR COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY.

When this group has taken a great step forward in the direction of the future family of the future. The present is said to be easy enough to be present, and recently has been put upon the market in the United States. By this means the most delicate shades of color can be accurately reproduced, and because of it we now to be on the verge of a revolution in the art of photography.

TIM'S VACATION.

By L. E. Skattuck.
(Copyright, by Shortstory Pub. Co.)

He wasn't much of a boy as far as size goes, for he stood hardly four feet high, and he had a thin, peaked face which made him look considerably smaller than he really was. And he wasn't much of a boy as far as looks go, either, for he wore a rusty old black coat, a grimy brown shirt, several sizes too large for him, without any collar, and a pair of cast off pants badly worn at the knees. His feet were encased in a pair of ragged tennis shoes, and perched on the back of his shock of red hair was a dingy old straw hat with the band and a part of the brim missing.

To the casual observer our Tim was a ludicrous combination of a boy and a man; but to those who looked closer the little thin face under the old straw hat, and the long thin arms and hands which emerged from the frayed sleeves of his ragged coat, added an element of pathos to this mirth-inspiring picture.

Tim was elevator boy in the office of the Morning Post. Where he came from no one seemed to know, but from the first day of his arrival the youngster became a general favorite. He was liked upstairs by the editors, reporters and composers, and downstairs by the press men, mailroom employees, and by the men in the office and business department. In short, there was not a soul in the establishment who did not know and like the little fellow who took so active an interest in all that was going on.

But it was the local room where Tim stood in the highest favor, and where he most delighted to spend his spare time. During his noon hour he often helped the city editor edit "copy" by handing him his mislaid shears or marriage bottle; and when any of the men on the city staff came bustling in with a "scoop" it was Tim who aided him in "landing" it by running the old elevator up the five stories at a terrific rate of speed. Indeed, he was a born newspaper man and could appreciate the value of news of whatever kind almost as quickly as the best reporter on the force.

Tim had been with us about six months, when, one summer evening as I entered the elevator car, the little fellow accented me with: "Say Bill, look at this." He addressed all the men on the local force by some contraction of the first name, and none of them took it amiss, although more than one was old enough to be the boy's father. As he spoke, the boy pulled a thumb marked envelope from his ragged coat and handed it to me. Glancing at the address I read in the familiar cramped hand of Mr. Hopper, the managing editor, "Mr. Timothy O'Brien," while down in one corner, inclosed in brackets, was the inscription, "Manager Elevator Department."

"Read it," said Tim proudly.

"This is what I read: 'Mr. Timothy O'Brien—Dear Sir: In the assignment of vacations yours has been fixed for the week beginning June 15. Wishing you a most enjoyable time, I am, very respectfully yours, LEON H. HOPPER, Managing Editor.'

"What do you think of that?" asked Tim.

"Think why, I think it's great," said I, as I looked back the precious document. Really, the situation was delicate. Not only had Miss Hoppe remembered the little elevator boy with a vacation, but she had forwarded him a formal certificate similar to those sent to every man on the staff.

From the bottom of the boy's face, however, I saw that something more was expected of me concerning this certificate.

At length he said slowly, "Boy Bill, what do you do with a vacation any more?"

"I don't know," I said.

WIT AND WISDOM.

No Error.

Herbert had a way of telling make-believe stories about the things he saw and his mother wished to convince him that they were not true. So, one day, when he saw a dog pass and began a story about its being a grizzly bear, she bade him run away and pray God to forgive him for telling an untruth. Very soon he returned and exclaimed: "God says that's all right, mother. He thought it was a grizzly, too."

Married Man in Trouble.
A married man who permits any member of his family to take anything except Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, is guilty of neglect. Nothing else is as good for all pulmonary troubles. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. W. E. Boersman, Bethel, Chas. E. Fernald, Rumford.

A Leading Question.
Broker Brown's office boy had been excused the afternoon before, and when he returned next morning his employer greeted him kindly.

"Well Billy," he said, "did you go to your grandmother's funeral?"

"Yes sir," replied Billy with a quivering lip.

"Was there a large attendance?"

"Yes sir."

"What was the score?"—Judge.

Would Mortgage the Farm.
A former on Rural Route 2, Empire, N. Y., W. A. Floyd by memo, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at Chas. Fernald's of Rumford, J. P. Johnston & Co.'s of Dixfield, Nathan Reynolds's of Canton, H. J. Reynolds's of Biddeford.

These Hard Times.
An economically minded citizen stopped in a hardware store and asked:

"How much are children's bath-tubs?"

"From three dollars up," responded the clerk.

"Whew!" whistled the customer. "Guess we will have to keep on washing the baby in the coal-scuttle."—Judge.

Woman Interrupts.
Political Speaker.
A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. If she had taken Foley's Honey and Tar it would have cured her cough quickly and expelled the cold from her system. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. W. E. Boersman, Bethel, Chas. E. Fernald, Rumford.

Good Enough For Him.
"City news—Why, uncle, I'm surprised to see you wearing such a rusty looking hat when you come to town."

Uncle Reuben—"It's the hat I alters wear low home."

City News—Yes, but that's different. Everybody knows you there."

Uncle Reuben—"Well, nobody don't know me here, so I ain't worryin', by gosh!"—Chicago Daily News.

Where Bullets Flew.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the Civil war, and lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitter have done me more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, a little purple. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well. Get it from Chas. Fernald's, Rumford, J. P. Johnston & Co.'s of Dixfield, Nathan Reynolds's of Canton, H. J. Reynolds's of Biddeford."

The Season's Way.
Young sister—But why don't you like Mr. Wayman?

Older sister—Oh, he doesn't know anything about the little intricacies of paying attention to a girl.

Young sister—Why I saw him when he tied your shoe lace and I'm sure that—er—

Older sister—Yes, but he tied it in a double knot, so it couldn't be untied again!

A Jeweler's Experience.
C. K. Kiger, The Jeweler, 1090 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities of my menstruation, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. W. E. Boersman, Bethel, Chas. Fernald, Rumford."

Judged by Appearance.
Jones—He has a motor-car face.

Brown—He looks broken down, if that's what you mean.—Half Holiday.

WEST PARIS.

Benefit Entertainment for West Paris Fire Company.

A Staging School Started. Methodist Society Will Have Harvest Dinner And Supper. Good Will Society Elect Officers. Oxford-Universalist Association.

For a long time the people of our community have felt the need of some fire protection for our village and have been much gratified that during the past year a good fire company has been organized, a hose purchased to attach to the steam pump at the mill of the Paris Manufacturing Co., a good chemical engine bought, also ladders, buckets, etc. The fire company is in need of supplies such as rubber suits for the hosemen, a truck for the ladders, etc., and the people of our town have decided to give them a grand benefit entertainment. First there will be a supper from 5:30 to 7:30 consisting of baked beans, coffee, salads, cold meats and pastry. West Paris Grange has kindly offered the use of their dining hall for this which was accepted. Price of supper tickets 20 cents, children under 12, 10 cents. In the evening a first-class entertainment will be given which promises to be one of the best for the season. The popular comedy, "The Village Post Office," will be played by some of the best local talent in town, the entire cast including over forty characters. Mrs. Perham, the aged mother of A. C. Perham, III and in very feeble health.

DIXFIELD ITEMS.

The Happenings of the Week as gathered by the Citizen Reporter.

"The Helpfulness of Christ" was the subject of Rev. E. W. Webber's discourse at the Universalist church Sunday p. m. His scripture lesson was from the 17th chapter of St. Matthew. The whole sermon was an uplift to the thought and purpose of humanity; was highly appreciated by the many hearers, and will long be remembered. It is hoped with much pleasure and profit to all. While Mr. Webber is not expected to be here again for the present, his many friends do not think of that being his finale as they earnestly hope he will make occasional visits to the place and parish. Mr. Webber goes to Livermore Falls from this place and Rumford. Many expressions of regret were manifested at his departure; yet kindly wishes for his success and happiness in his new home and church relations were extended.

Mr. F. H. Keene was down from Rangeley Monday and made a short tarry in town. Mr. and Mrs. Keene intend to remain at Packard's Camps until late in the season.

Mr. J. P. Edmunds and daughter, Edna and W. H. Small were in Rumford Thursday evening and attended the meeting at the new Baptist church, lately dedicated. Prof. A. W. Anthony of Lewiston was the speaker of the evening and his hearers were deeply interested in his discourse, which was one of much interest to all, subject "The Personal Equation."

When the alarm of fire was given by the ringing of the church bell at West Peru, Sunday morning it was not noticed at first by many of our citizens as any thing different than the usual call for church worship, but the continued ringing showed the cause to be an alarm of fire to which many of the village people responded with eagerness, and the spirit of helpfulness. The grocery store and buildings in connection, owned by E. C. Staples were totally destroyed. The rain at the time proved very helpful in making the occasion less destructive for the nearby buildings. Plenty of help and prompt action saved the buildings of Mr. John Putnam which were nearest.

Mrs. Rebecca Brown has been visiting relatives and friends here the past week, returned to her home at Berry Mills this week. A party was given in her honor at the home of J. P. Edmunds by her granddaughter Edna.

Those present were Mrs. Mary Kilgore, Mrs. Viola Holt, Mrs. Phoebe Phillips, Mrs. Hannah Holman, Mrs. Jane White and Mrs. Houle. An excellent boiled dinner was served to the guests, and the day was most happily spent by all present, in reminiscences of the past and of their joys of the present and will be a bright spot in their memories for the years to come.

Mr. Leander Berry of Georgetown, Me., who has been visiting relatives here and at Peru the past week, returned to Bath, Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Kidder of Peru was calling on friends in town last week, she was the guest of Mrs. J. J. Towle Thursday.

Mrs. D. A. Gates was in Portland Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Sybil L. Dillingham, D. D. G. M. of Order of Eastern Star is on a tour of inspection this week, visiting Elm Vale Chapter at Bolster's Mills Tuesday evening, Keoka Chapter at Waterville Wednesday evening and Delta Chapter at Lovell, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dillingham was a charter member of Monitor Chapter, No. 72 of Dixfield and has held office in the several different stations since its organization eight years ago; serving as Worthy Matron two years in a most creditable manner. The members of Monitor Chapter extend congratulations to her in receiving the honors conferred by the O. W. M. and wish her success and much pleasure in her new field of work.

Mrs. Frank Leavitt is visiting relatives and friends in Portland this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Marsh are visiting relatives at Farmington this week.

Mr. C. L. Dillingham has recently sold his grocery business to Mr. C. E. Dunham of North Paris. While the many friends of Mr. Dillingham exceedingly regret his departure from the business, they will extend cordial ings to his successor and wish him prosperity in his work. Mr. Dunham is expected here this week and will move his family here soon.

A party of sixteen teachers and pupils of Dixfield and West Peru schools took a trip on Mt. Sagor Leaf Saturday, and enjoyed the day very much.

Harvest dinner this Thursday noon at the Church Aid rooms in Masonic building.

Mr. Chas. Brown of Berry Mills was in town Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Walters of New York are in town, guests of Mrs. Walters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Walters. Mr. Walters will return to his home in New York in a few days.

his wife remaining for a few weeks with her relatives.

NORTH BUCKFIELD.

Mountain Grange held an all day meeting Oct. 3. State Master, Stetson and also one of the State Deputies were present. There was a supper followed by an entertainment. There was a large crowd.

Holman Monk who has been spending two weeks in the place has returned to Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. M. A. Sturtevant spent last Thursday at Dr. H. M. Heald's.

Mrs. Warren George has been staying at David Record's.

L. D. Fuller has purchased Carl Hammond's farm and moved the past week. Mrs. Celia Dunham is visiting at her niece, Mrs. A. T. Getchell at Turner.

There was a husking at C. B. Damon's last Thursday night. About 100 were present.

Mrs. Cressey and Mrs. Record are staying a short time at Mechanic Falls.

Althea Stetson spent Saturday and Sunday with her father, in Sumner.

C. B. McKee has sold his farm to his son, Vinton and has bought John Smith's stand in this village.

Mrs. Warren Lathrop and son Clayton, spent Sunday at Mrs. J. E. Mayhew's.

BYRON.

Mrs. Dean Davis of Jackson, N. H., was in town Friday.

S. G. Wheelwright of East Dixfield, visited friends at Gum Corner, Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Sawyer has returned from a month's visit at West Minot.

Mrs. W. A. Arris visited her mother at Auburn last week.

Mrs. G. T. Hodsdon is visiting relatives at Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Taylor attended the Advent Conference at Bridgton last week.

Mr. C. F. Strout has been appointed postmaster at Houghton, vice John Houghton, resigned.

Mrs. Anna Marsh of Dixfield and Miss Grace Knapp of Auburn are visiting their uncle, John E. Shaw.

Miss Alberta McInnis of Roxbury, spent Sunday with Mrs. R. W. Traak.

Mrs. E. E. Knapp and children are visiting at her mother's home in Gilberville.

Mr. Millett Whitney who has been home on a three months' furlough, left Saturday to rejoin his regiment at Fort Jay, N. Y., en route for the Philippines.

Mrs. Jotham Shaw will reside with his daughter, Mrs. R. E. Taylor at Roxbury the coming winter.

The last game of the series between the Byron and Roxbury nines was played at Roxbury Saturday afternoon before a large crowd of fans from the two towns and Rumford. It was harvest time with the Byron farmers and they gathered in the shade of their opponent's to the tune of 13 to 6. Up to the 4th inning it was a hotly contested game with honors even. Then a hot drive to right field captured by L. W. Thomas of the Byrons, who made a fine double play, so amazed the Roxbury boys that the rest of the game was a walkover for the winners. The game was umpired by John Reed of Roxbury.

PERU.

Harvesting is nearly completed in this section. A good yield of potatoes is reported but a small apple crop.

S. A. Getchell and family with a crew of men are nearly ready to start for Rangeley, where he has taken a lumber job.

Dana Sawyer has finished work for H. R. & C. H. Robinson and goes to Byron to work for C. S. Luce on lumber.

The workmen are still busy on Mr. H. M. Stillman's house. Mr. Stillman is in very poor health, although improving slowly.

Mr. Lunt, wife and child from Farmington are visiting at Mr. Stillman's and other friends in town.

Mrs. T. W. Stillman and little son, and sister, Grace Knox, have gone to Boston for a few weeks' visit. Mrs. Stillman's husband will join her there on his return from the West.

Miss Florence Holman, who has been caring for Mrs. H. R. Robinson, has returned home. Mrs. Robinson is much better but not able to get around very much as yet, but gaining nicely.

Miss Mabelle Sawyer, who is teaching in Sumner, is visiting friends in town. The wedding reception given by Mr. and Mrs. George Conant at the Grange Hall Wednesday evening was a very pleasant affair. They were the recipients of many nice presents and the wish of their many friends is for a long and happy life for them.

Mrs. Lizzie Walker of Mechanic Falls was making calls on friends here last week.

We understand that H. F. Campbell has sold his place to a company who intend to carry on mining operations there.

Mrs. Annie Conant is very poorly, suffering from throat trouble.

Mell Frost has moved his family into the rent formerly occupied by P. O. Barrett.

The store of Ezra Staples, W. Peru, burned, Sunday afternoon.

WANTS TO TRADE.

A Citizen Reader finds in its Want Column an Attractive Bargain but is Looking For Bom.

That the OXFORD COUNTY CITIZEN has done many a good deed during its existence on this mundane sphere, many a mortal can testify. Among its good deeds it has succeeded in buying and selling and swapping all sorts of things through its want column. A host of its readers agree that the want column alone is worth the price of the paper. Through it have been sold automobiles too numerous to mention, cattle, horses, sheep and hogs, hay and wood piles, cats and dogs, and a lot of things that space will not permit mentioning.

It seems that Mr. A. J. Marble of Rumford Point, and heard that a sale notice in the want column of said paper was just as sure to bring a cart load of buyers as is Ayer's Hair Vigor to produce golden locks a mile long on the shiniest bald crown in seventeen counties, and so he made a desperate run for the CITIZEN office in his Stanley Steamer, showed the article up to the editor, and the two mingled their grey matter and brought forth just the paragon which they believed, placed in the famous and ever reductive want column, would call forth such an opportunity to swap the faithful Stanley that the owner could have his pick of bargains from a thousand and one. Then both retired from their arduous task to await results, but not to wait in vain, for their announcement had appeared in the CITIZEN less than a month when Mr. Marble received the following, which explains itself, and makes conclusive proof that the CITIZEN'S want column is pull, doubly conclusive. Here it is:

Andover, Me., Sept. 15th, 1908
A. J. Marble,
Rumford Point, Me.,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your ad in the CITIZEN of this week will say that I have just the trade you want in a team providing your auto can show as many good points. I have a horse-black mare, some over 10 years old that stands on four legs, will stand without hitching and will also go when she is asked to. No need of walking home from Lew Holt's of Andover. Her boiler is slight and she won't catch on fire. No danger of puncture, lack of steam or gasoline. Will climb any hill on slow gear and more of them on high gear. Speed—six miles an hour which beats walking to a finish. Carriage has four wheels, solid tires, body with seat and dash. No need of horn or headlights nor whip nor safety valve. Now just a few questions about your car. Will it run without horses? Has it three or four wheels? Do you have to employ a fire department when it gets ashore on the road? How much swearing does it take to get it up a hill? Will it climb a tree and do you have to buy special shoes for walking home when the machine is balked up for repairs? If it takes three days for your car to go from Lew Holt's to the Point, how long would it take to go from Andover to Upton and what do you call the speed limit? I think that is all for now except to ask what boot you will offer for my old black horse.

Very truly yours,
F. E. LEBLIE.

FRYEBURG.

Mr. Chas. Watchman who lived at the Harbor, died Saturday after a long illness. Bright's disease was the direct cause of his death. The funeral was held at his late home Monday afternoon.

The Knights of Pythias have recently purchased Mr. Tom Charles' block on Elm Street and after some alterations already begun will occupy it as a lodge room. It is a fine building and they were very fortunate to secure such a nice home. Mr. Charles will continue to occupy the store for the present.

Mr. Phillips and John Hutchins visited relatives of Mr. Phillips in N. H. last week and attended the Plymouth.

Several from Fryeburg are attending the Festival in Portland this week. Della Turner was married to Dr. Riden, Saturday a. m. at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Allard.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace R. Tarbox entertained a party of twelve at their cottage "Blackburn" Saturday, in honor of their guest, Mrs. Geo. O. Bailey from Belfast. All report a fine time.

Mrs. Cordelia Farnsworth visited Mrs. Martha Frye a few days last week at Fryeburg Center.

Three beautiful days with fine autumnal colorings offer great inducements to lovers to venture to leave business and ride through the country.

Mr. Marcus M. Smart, who owns a fine set of excellent farm buildings and excellent farm beyond Fryeburg Center, has decided to give up farming and has offered his farm for sale. This is a rare chance for any one looking for a farm.

Dr. J. H. Smith has been called to Fryeburg (with his horse).

Nothing Dyspepsia AND Stomach Troubles

Thompson, Me., Sept. 15, 1908.
The late L. F. Aycock's illness was our family medicine. My wife had a number of different patients, but her family medicine was the late L. F. Aycock's illness and stomach troubles.

RUMFORD HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

On Saturday, Oct. 10th the Rumford High school girls had a bare and bound chase. There were three trails lead out from the schoolhouse and there were two bare on each trail. The ladies left the schoolhouse at 9:15 a. m. and the bands followed at 10:15 a. m. The trails all led up the Swift River road and there on a convenient place by the river they had dinner cooked over open fires. After dinner various games were enjoyed until about 3:30 p. m. Thirty-eight girls participated in the chase and every one had a jolly good time.

On Saturday, Oct. 10th, a very interesting ball game was played between the high school team and the Rumford Juniors. The Rumford Juniors expected to beat the high school boys but they were greatly disappointed. The score was 11 to 3 in favor of the high school team.

Mr. Drew T. Hathorne, Principal of Wilton Academy, and former principal of the Rumford High School, visited the school Thursday forenoon, Oct. 8th and gave a very interesting and helpful talk at the opening exercises.

On Saturday, Oct. 10th, a party of high school boys and teachers enjoyed a walk to Mt. Zion. They cooked their dinner on top of the mountain where they obtained a beautiful view of the surrounding country.

The Drink Again.

Jones—I'm glad I've met you doctor. Can you give me anything for a bad headache?

Doctor—Have you had bad headaches?

Jones—Yes, doctor.
